Rhonda Pellin Did this with my 85 year old mother-in-law for her birthday (her choice) and it was absolutely beautiful (and I am afraid of heights and it didn't bother me)!

"Family fun in the redwoods; very accommodating"

NEW

★★★★★ Reviewed 2 days ago

It's not every adventure company that will react positively when you ask for accommodations for a special needs child; this one is the exception. Called to ask if they could handle a teen with CP who, while higher functioning, has physical limitations. I received a call back from a manager within two hours and he was enthusiastic about helping our family be able to take the canopy tour. They limited the number of people in our group, staffed with an extra guide, and assigned someone to tandem with our son. At the same price anyone else would pay. With a terrific attitude. Amazing! The canopy tour was great fun for everyone and we so appreciate everything MHA did to make it happen.
